

Lyman High School Marching Greyhounds DC Trip 2010 UPDATE (As of 3-9-10)

New Parade Banner

The Marching Greyhounds will be marching in style thanks to a brand new parade banner! This beautiful banner measures 10ft by 3 ft and will proudly be at the front of our Marching Greyhounds as they represent our school and the community at the National Cherry Blossom Festival Parade. Many thanks to our parents (business partners) for this awesome donation:

- Steve Tishman - Results Marketing (Donated production of the banner)
- Amy Huber - huberdesign (Donated artwork)
- Rich Smith - Professional Landscaping (Making banner pole and storage system)

PARADE FYI

This year's Parade steps off at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, April 10, 2010 in downtown Washington, D.C. and is expected to be a two-hour celebration.

ROUTE: The Parade route travels along the historic part of Constitution Avenue, NW beginning at 7th Street and ending at 17th Street. Along the way it passes the National Archives, the Department of Justice, Smithsonian Museums, the Washington Monument and the White House. The length of this distance is approximately one mile.

VIEWING: For those that can't make it to see the Parade live, the 2010 National Cherry Blossom Festival Parade® will be featured in a live telecast on WJLA/ABC 7 and NewsChannel 8 and will be re-broadcast the next day (time TBA) on NewsChannel 8. Additionally, for viewers outside the WJLA/ABC 7 & NewsChannel 8 region, the Parade will be available for streaming on the NewsChannel 8 website (<http://www.news8.net>).

GRANDSTAND SEATING: For those who purchased tickets, they will be mailed on or around March 19, 2010, and the band board will let you know about the distribution process.
